

TAIWAN FOUNDATION for DEMOCRACY

財團法人臺灣民主基金會

Mr. Tatewaki Miura
International Visiting Fellow 2007
Research Topic

For the Japanese, both Taiwan and China are countries whose geographic, economic, and political relevance absolutely cannot be ignored. In order to give an international audience a deeper understanding of this historical context, Taiwan Foundation for Democracy International Visiting Fellow and National Chengchi University Graduate Institute of Taiwan History Guest Professor Mr. Tatewaki Miura spent ten months in Taiwan compiling a detailed chronology of important events in cross-strait relations in both Chinese and Japanese. Mr. Miura has a distinguished career in official development assistance and has worked at the Interchange Association, Japan's representative office to Taiwan.